Sodom and Gomorrah

During the Time of Abraham and Lot

So God was thinking you should all go to the mountains.

With my high arches? No way!

Do you smell smoke?

No but I smell salt.

Oh this was totally worth being turned into a pillar of salt for!

The background is a classical painting depicting a scene in a desert. Several figures, likely angels, are shown in various poses. One angel in the foreground has large, white, feathered wings and is wearing a white robe. Other figures are in colorful robes (yellow, blue, white). The landscape is arid with rolling hills and a distant city under a hazy sky.
